

Apollo is a 5-year-old Belgian Malinois from the Czech Republic who has worked for the Arizona Department of Corrections for four years.

Apollo is a service dog, trained in narcotics, handler protection, article searches and building and area searches. He takes all of his commands in Czech by his handler Officer Theresa Burns. Service Dog Apollo and Officer Burns are certified through the National Police Canine Association Standards. Apollo's loves going to work and his favorite toy is a rubber ball.